

Jim Rogers Announced as Keynote Speaker for 2012 Asia-Pacific Commodity Outlook Conference in Singapore

Rogers, An Internationally Known Speaker, Author and Commodity Expert, Will Provide His Outlook for Global Commodity Markets

NEW YORK, Jan. 18, 2012 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- INTL FCStone Inc. (Nasdaq:INTL) today announced that Jim Rogers, internationally known commodity expert and best-selling author, will be the keynote speaker for the 2012 Asia-Pacific Commodity Outlook Conference in Singapore, sponsored by CME Group. The Outlook Conference will cover the supply and demand outlook for key agricultural and soft commodities; base and precious metals; energy products including petroleum and crude oil; and raw materials.

Also scheduled to speak at the conference is Professor Roger Stone of the University of South Queensland, presenting his world weather outlook.

In addition, INTL FCStone's commodity experts Bill Dwyer, Mike O'Dea, Jeff Rhodes, Greg Vincent, Tom Zabrodsky, Chris Thorpe, Fred Demler, Robert Chesler, Mar io Silveira, Mike Ortiz, Oscar Schaps, and Sagiv Shiv will present their outlooks for the global commodity markets.

The conference, to be held February 22 and 23 at Singapore's Grand Hyatt Hotel, is intended for General, Finance, Operations, Purchasing and Sales executives anywhere in the commodity production chain, as well as for institutions that regard commodities as an asset class and are seeking insight that will help them make strategic decisions.
