StoneX Group Inc. Reports Fiscal 2022 Second Quarter Financial Results

Record Quarterly Operating Revenues of $544.7 million, up 16%

Quarterly Net Income of $64.0 million, ROE of 26.1%

Quarterly Diluted EPS of $3.11 per share, up 14%

New York, NY – May 4, 2022 – StoneX Group Inc. (the “Company”; NASDAQ: SNEX), a diversified global brokerage and financial services firm providing execution, risk management and advisory services, market intelligence and clearing services across multiple asset classes and markets around the world, today announced its financial results for the fiscal year 2022 second quarter ended March 31, 2022.

Sean M. O’Connor, CEO of StoneX Group Inc., stated, “Our broad product offering and diversified client base, combined with generally favorable market conditions, helped us deliver record core operating results in the second quarter of fiscal 2022. This included net income of $64.0 million, or $3.11 per share, with especially strong results coming from our Commercial and Retail segments, which represented an ROE of 26.1% on stated book value and a 29.0% ROE on tangible book value. I am also pleased with our success in navigating the heightened volatility and other challenges resulting from the war in Ukraine. For the year-to-date period, we recorded net income of $105.7 million, or $5.15 per share, and an ROE of 22.1% on stated book value. Current market conditions remain broadly positive for us with heightened volatility and rising interest rates”.

StoneX Group Inc. Summary Financials

Consolidated financial statements for the Company will be included in our Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q to be filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”). The Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q will also be made available on the Company’s website at www.stonex.com.

Operating Revenues

Operating revenues increased $73.3 million, or 16%, to $544.7 million in the three months ended March 31, 2022 compared to $471.4 million in the three months ended March 31, 2021.

Operating revenues derived from listed derivatives increased $21.9 million, or 22%, to $123.0 million in the three months ended March 31, 2022 compared to $101.1 million in the three months ended March 31, 2021. Listed derivative contract volumes and the average rate per contract increased 13% and 7%, respectively, compared to the three months ended March 31, 2021. Both of these increases were driven by wide spread volatility in listed derivative markets during the three months ended March 31, 2022.

Operating revenues derived from OTC derivatives increased $27.3 million, or 78%, to $62.4 million in the three months ended March 31, 2022 compared to $35.1 million in the three months ended March 31, 2021. This was the result of strong growth in OTC derivative contract volumes and the average rate per contract of 18% and 52%, respectively in the three months ended March 31, 2022. This growth was principally driven by increased volatility in global commodity and interest rate markets.

Operating revenue derived from securities transactions declined $6.5 million, or 4%, to $151.3 million in the three months ended March 31, 2022 compared to $157.8 million in the three months ended March 31, 2021. This decline was principally due to a 21% decline in the RPM, as the prior year period benefited from wider spreads due to volatility driven by the COVID-19 pandemic, and was partially offset by a 16% increase in ADV.

Operating revenues derived from FX/CFD contracts increased $24.2 million, or 32%, to $98.9 million in the three months ended March 31, 2022 compared to $74.7 million in the three months ended March 31, 2021, principally as a result of an $18.8 million increase in such operating revenues within our Retail segment.

Operating revenues from global payments increased $7.3 million, or 22%, to $40.1 million in the three months ended March 31, 2022 compared to $32.8 million in the three months ended March 31, 2021, principally driven by an 8% increase in ADV and a 12% increase in global payments RPM.

Operating revenues derived from physical contracts declined $8.8 million, or 18%, to $40.7 million in the three months ended March 31, 2022 compared to $49.5 million in the three months ended March 31, 2021. This decline is principally attributed to a decline in activity in our physical precious metals businesses as compared to a strong performance in the prior year comparative period.

Interest and fee income earned on client balances, which is associated with our listed and OTC derivatives, correspondent clearing, and independent wealth management product offerings, increased $4.6 million, or 79%, to $10.4 million in the three months ended March 31, 2022 compared to $5.8 million in the three months ended March 31, 2021. This was principally driven by an increase in average client equity and average money-market/FDIC sweep client balances of 38% and 29%, respectively, as well as a modest increase in short-term interest rates.

Operating revenues for the three months ended March 31, 2021 included a $1.2 million loss on derivative positions used to mitigate our exposure to the British Pound in the acquired Gain subsidiaries in advance of the March 1, 2021 transfer of the majority of the operations of Gain's U.K. domiciled subsidiaries into StoneX Financial Ltd., a U.S. dollar denominated entity. In addition, as Gain's U.K. subsidiaries had a functional currency of British Pound, the increased U.S. dollar exposure resulted in a $3.1 million foreign currency gain on revaluation for the three months ended March 31, 2021. Each of these items were reflected in operating revenues in the Corporate Unallocated segment.

Other Gain

The results of the three months ended March 31, 2022 include a nonrecurring gain of $6.4 million related to a foreign exchange antitrust class action settlement received in March 2022.

Impact of the Gain on Acquisitions

The Company acquired Gain Capital Holdings, Inc., effective August 1, 2020. When evaluating the acquisition of Gain, management also considers the amortization expense related to the intangible assets identified and recorded as part of the acquisition and the net loss on the internal merger of the operations of Gain's U.K. subsidiaries.

The following table presents income before tax, income tax expense, and net income as reported in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (“GAAP”). The following table also presents adjusted income before tax, adjusted income tax expense, and adjusted net income, which are non-GAAP financial measures. The “adjusted” non-GAAP financial measures reflect each item after removing the impact of the related transaction costs and other expenses for the three and six months ended March 31, 2022 and 2021, respectively. Management believes that presenting our results excluding the transaction costs and other expenses is meaningful, as it increases the comparability of period-to-period results.

Total non-interest expenses	$ 439.0	100%	$ 373.5	100%	$ 809.5	100%	$ 706.3	100%

Our variable expenses include variable compensation paid to traders and risk management consultants, bonuses paid to operational, administrative and executive employees, transaction-based clearing expenses and introducing broker commissions. We seek to make non-interest expenses variable to the greatest extent possible, and to keep our fixed costs as low as possible.

Segment Results

Our business activities are managed as operating segments and organized into reportable segments consisting of Commercial, Institutional, Retail and Global Payments.

The tables below present the financial performance, a disaggregation of operating revenues, and select operating data and metrics used by management in evaluating the performance of our segments, for the periods indicated. Additional information on the performance of our segments will be included in our Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q to be filed with the SEC.

Total unallocated costs and other expenses increased $15.6 million, or 22%, to $88.1 million in the three months ended March 31, 2022 compared to $72.5 million in the three months ended March 31, 2021. Compensation and benefits increased $5.8 million, or 15%, to $44.8 million in the three months ended March 31, 2022 compared to $39.0 million in the three months ended March 31, 2021, principally due to the increase in headcount.

Average administrative headcount increased 10% in the three months ended March 31, 2022 compared to the three months ended March 31, 2021, principally within IT, compliance, and human resources. Other non-compensation expenses increased $9.8 million, or 29%, to $43.3 million in the three months ended March 31, 2022 compared to $33.5 million in the three months ended March 31, 2021 principally due to higher legal fees, not directly related to a business, non-trading technology and travel costs, as well as the costs of holding our bi-annual global sales and strategy meeting in March 2022.

The “adjusted” non-GAAP amounts reflect each item after removing the impact of the related transaction costs and other expenses for the three and six months ended March 31, 2022 and 2021, respectively. Management believes that presenting our results excluding the related transaction costs and other expenses is meaningful, as it increases the comparability of period-to-period results.

⁽¹⁾ For the three and six months ended March 31, 2021, operating revenues included unrealized losses on derivative positions of $1.2 million and $4.9 million, respectively, used to mitigate our exposure to the British Pound in the acquired Gain subsidiaries in advance of the March 1, 2021 transfer of the majority of the operations of Gain's U.K. domiciled subsidiaries into StoneX Financial Ltd., a U.S. dollar denominated entity. In addition, as Gain's U.K. subsidiaries had a functional currency of British Pound, the increased U.S. dollar exposure resulted in foreign currency gains on revaluation of $3.1 million and $0.4 million for the three and six months ended March 31, 2021, respectively.
