

INTL Expands Syndicated Loan Facility for Commodities Subsidiary

NEW YORK, Jan. 21, 2010 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- International Assets Holding Corporation (Nasdaq:IAAC) announced that Fortis Bank (Nederland) N.V. has committed $30 million to increase an existing syndicated loan to the Company's wholly owned subsidiary, INTL Commodities, Inc.

The entry of Fortis Bank (Nederland) N.V. into the syndicate increases the amount available under this facility from $62 million to $92 million. The loan proceeds will continue to be used to finance INTL Commodities' activities and are secured by INTL Commodities' assets.

INTL Commodities focuses on the trading of physical precious metals and base metals, offering complete solutions to producers, consumers, investors and merchants. Products and services include spot, OTC swaps, forwards and derivatives, customized hedge programs, margin trading, refining and physical purchases and sales. The organization's extensive operational and logistics expertise provides for a seamless execution of physical transactions on a worldwide basis. INTL Commodities is represented in New York, London and Florida.

Sean O'Connor, CEO said, "We welcome our new banking partner to the INTL Commodities' lending group and are pleased with the growing support of our Company following our merger with FCStone."

This facility was originally arranged by BNP Paribas Fortis and other lenders include Mizuho Corporate Bank Ltd. and Brown Brothers Harriman & Co.
