Item 5.   Other Events

On September 17, 2001, International Assets Holding Corporation (the Company) announced the resignation of William C. Dennis, Jr. as President and Chief Operating Officer of the Company, effective immediately.   Mr. Dennis held the position for roughly one year, since September 7, 2000. Diego J. Veitia, Chairman, CEO and founder of the Company will assume the position of President.

Mr. Veitia stated, "Over the past year, Mr. Dennis has helped us refine our firm's strategic offering and repositioned the Company to focus on our core business of international securities trading. He oversaw the creation of strategic alliances and the development of technology needed to offer an exciting B2B international trading solution to broker/dealers, making our real time quotes and execution of foreign securities directly available to their retail clients on a private label basis. He made many friends within our organization in the short time he was with us. We appreciate his many contributions and wish him the best in his future endeavors."
