

International Assets Holding Corporation Names Oscar Schaps as Managing Director, Global Soft Commodities

NEW YORK, Jan. 20, 2011 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- International Assets Holding Corporation (INTL) (Nasdaq:INTL) today announced that it has named Oscar Schaps as Managing Director, Global Soft Commodities. Schaps will direct INTL FCStone's global soft commodities risk management operations.

Schaps, with more than 20 years of professional risk management experience, joined INTL FCStone in 2010 when it acquired INTL Hencorp Futures, LLC. He is a leading authority on the global coffee trade. He has served as director or committee Member for various international coffee organizations such as the National Coffee Association of America, Pacific Coast Coffee Association, and the Association for Coffee Excellence.

Pete Nessler, President of FCStone, LLC, said, "Oscar's addition to the team has bolstered INTL FCStone's ability to offer comprehensive risk management solutions to not only our coffee customers, but also to the producers, consumers and distributors of other soft commodities around the globe."

Schaps added, "I am delighted to take on these new responsibilities. INTL FCStone has broad capabilities in risk management and associated financial services and I look forward to introducing these capabilities to a global audience."
