Global Food Issues Take Center Stage at INTL FCStone's 2011 Outlook Conference

MEDIA ALERT: Join Leading Commodities Experts in Chicago on June 15 and 16

CHICAGO, June 14, 2011 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) --

WHAT: INTL FCStone Inc. (Nasdaq:INTL) is hosting its 2011 Outlook Conference to help investors, producers, processors and end users of food commodities foresee global supply and demand issues and, in the process, help them prepare for and protect against the risks of price fluctuations in a time of increasing uncertainty about global food supplies.

WHEN: June 15th and 16th.

WHERE: 203 South LaSalle Street, 3rd Floor, Chicago, Illinois.

WHY: This year, conference speakers will address not only dairy, grains and energy, but currencies, the global economy, and the outlook for global food demand in the developed and developing worlds. The conference also presents an opportunity to meet and mingle with producers, managers and executives across the entire food-production supply chain.

For more information on the conference, and a complete list of speakers and topics, please visit <http://www.intlfcstone.com/seminars/outlook/Pages/default.aspx>

Persons interested in attending the event can contact Kelly Czachor at kelly.czachor@intlfcstone.com. Members of the media can attend all daytime sessions of the conference at no charge.
